1. Online content

Ninety Nerds Per Minute assumes no guarantee for the up-to-datedness, correctness, completeness or quality of the information provided. Liability claims against Ninety Nerds Per Minute relating to tangible or intangible damages, caused by the use or non-use of information presented and/or the use of erroneous and incomplete information shall be excluded, provided no demonstrably intentional or grossly negligent fault exists on the part of the author. All offers shall be subject to change and non-binding. Ninety Nerds Per Minute expressly reserves the right to modify, supplement or delete parts or pages of the complete offer without separate notification, or to temporarily or completely discontinue publication.

2. References and links

For direct or indirect links to third-party websites ("hyperlinks"), which lie outside the area of responsibility of Ninety Nerds Per Minute, liability would only come into effect in the event that Ninety Nerds Per Minute were aware of the content and it was technically possible and reasonable for it to prevent the use of illegal content. Ninety Nerds Per Minute hereby expressly declares that, at the time the link was set, no illegal content was discernable on the pages to be linked. Ninety Nerds Per Minute has no influence on the current and future design, content or copyright of linked/referenced pages which were modified after the link was set. It therefore expressly distances itself from all content of linked/referenced pages which were modified after the link was set. This statement applies for all links and references set within its own online content and for third-party entries in guest books, discussion forums, link directories and mailing lists set up by Ninety Nerds Per Minute, and in all forms of databases for whose content external written access is possible. For illegal, erroneous or incomplete content, and particularly for claims arising from the use or non-use of this type of featured information, the provider of the page referenced shall be solely liable and not the party who merely refers to the respective publication via links.

3. Copyright and trademark law

In all publications Ninety Nerds Per Minute endeavours to observe the copyright of the images, graphics, audio files, video sequences and texts used, to use images, graphics, audio files, video sequences and texts created by itself or to revert to graphics, audio files and texts in the public domain. All trademarks and brand marks within the online content and, where appropriate, trademarks and brand marks protected by third parties, shall be subject unreservedly to the provisions of currently applicable trademark law, and the titles of the respectively registered owners. Based merely on the name, the conclusion must not be drawn that trademarks are not protected by the rights of third parties! The copyright for objects published and created by Ninety Nerds Per Minute remains with the author of the pages. Reproduction or use of such graphics, audio files, video sequences and texts in other electronic or printed material publications shall not be permitted without the express consent of Ninety Nerds Per Minute.

4. Data protection

Where it is possible to enter personal or business data (e-mail addresses, names, addresses) in the online content, the user shall divulge this data on an explicitly voluntary basis. The utilisation and payment of all offered services shall – as far as technically possible and reasonable – be permitted without specification of such data and/or by specifying anonymised data or a pseudonym. Third parties shall not be permitted to use data published as part of the legal notice or as part of comparable information - such as postal address, telephone numbers, fax numbers and email addresses - for transmitting information not expressly requested. In the event that this ban is contravened, the right shall be reserved to take steps against senders of so-called spam mails.

5. Legal effectiveness of this disclaimer

This disclaimer must be considered a part of our online content. If parts or individual formulations of this text do not, no longer or not fully correspond to the current legal position, the content and validity of the remaining parts of the document shall remain unaffected.
